Quilters Anonymous - for addicts only - no cures provided, wanted or needed.

Every Tuesday from 10.00am - 3.00pm

This is for anyone who is looking to join a wonderful group of talented, friendly, vivacious stitchers who are in love with making quilts. This group is open to anyone who is looking to spend time with likeminded ladies and enjoy all the journey has to offer on the road to completing their quilt. This is a social group where you will not only be supported but also challenged on your quilting journey. Please call the shop to book your space. Sewing room opens at 10am - please bring your lunch. Tea/ Coffee and morning tea supplied. A nominal fee of $5.00 per visit is kindly requested.

Liberated Quilt makers

Friday 4 November, 9 December & 20 January 10.00am - 4.00pm

Are you fighting that wonderful euphoria of wanting to start another new project against the realization that you have a few (no number required) unfinished quilts still under construction. Well this is the group for you. Come along and join other addicted quilters who are looking for support and encouragement to complete their UFO's. This social group meets once a month on a Friday from 10am. Please bring your lunch, tea/coffee supplied. A nominal fee of $5.00 per visit is kindly requested.

Lollipop Trees

Glorious Applique

Wednesday 9 & 23 November, 7 December, 18 & 25 January 6.00pm – 9.00pm

This group is for anyone with a passion for applique quilts. On Wednesday evenings twice a month (on average) this group gathers for a shared meal, whether it be take out/home cooked and settles in for an evening of laughter and friendship as all the ladies work on their quilts. Some of the fabulous quilts being worked on include Lollipop Trees, Blackbird's Cold Wind, Kim McLean's Flower Garden & Flower Pots & Sue Ross's version of Auntie Green. Come along and join this busy group of quilters and share in the wonderful world of applique. Sewing room opens from 5.30pm. Cost of the evening is $5.00 plus the shared cost of the meal (which varies).

Palm Beach Bag

Friday 11 November 6pm & Saturday 3 December 10am

The name sounds so dreamy that you know you need one. This wonderful bag has been designed by Wendy Williams and we fell in love with it instantly when she flashed it around at Quilting on the Downs. Summer months bring to mind trips to the beach and family picnics so this bag is a must have for every quilter/mother/grandmother. The sturdy handles will help it carry the weight of the family, as every good mother knows (towels, purses, water bottles, phones – etc – etc). If you can escape on your own I am sure that it would hold & hide many parcels of love for ones self. Class fee is $15.00. For those who pre-purchase their kit from the shop we will even pre-cut it, ready for you to jump right in and start sewing. Morning tea/supper will be provided.

Cathedral Windows

Sunday December 4 & Sunday 15 January

10.00am – 4.00pm

Join the lovely Bev McClune as she shares her passion for this gorgeous antique block modernized for the busy quilter. Bev has two very different but equally stunning quilts to choose from in this class – you could even combine the two if desired. A very patient and generous teacher Bev will have you feeling very confident as you progress with your own creation. This class is run over 2 days, the first in December with the follow up class on Sunday 15 January. The cost of this class is $50.00 per day. Limited student numbers allow you time to discuss your design and colour options and also receive plenty of one on one time with Bev. Classroom opens at 9.30am for a 10.00am start and includes your homemade morning & afternoon tea.

Sunday Slippers

Sunday 13 November, 18 December & 22 January

10.00am – 4.00pm

This is a fantastic group, which meets once a month on a Sunday. You can work on any kit purchases from the shop or sometime the ladies as a group choose a project for everyone to make. It is extremely satisfying to see the varied choices of quilts the group chooses. The girls have made Atomic Bloom (Wendy Williams), Brighton Rock (Kathy Doughty), Bittersweet Briar (Kim Diehl) and French Bouquet (Kookaburra Cottage) to name a few. There is no cost for this class but all participants purchase a kit from Precious Time and must hold/purchase an original copy of any of the patterns selected. Tea/coffee and homemade morning tea is supplied but please bring your lunch. Classroom opens at 9.30am.

Precious Time Christmas Party

Sunday 11 December 10.00am - 2.00pm

This is a delightful way for us to bring the Christmas spirit to Precious Time. Come along with a plate of your favourite Christmas delicacies accompanied with a copy of the recipe to share. Bring along some hand sewing while enjoying delicious home baked Christmas goodies and the company of like-minded ladies. Christmas celebrations will start with a glass of champagne and then endless tea/coffee. We will compile all the recipes into a booklet for everyone attending the day. We hope that you can join with us to celebrate the start of our Christmas season.

Rag Rug Class

Saturday 12 November 10.00am - 2.00pm

This handmade rug is a gorgeous addition to any home, whether it be in the kitchen, bathroom or at the front door. It would look fantastic made from a mix of batiks like the shop sample, soft pretty pastels or a wonderful mix of bright happy Kaffe prints -that would definitely make your little feet tingle from happiness. Come along and learn how to make this beautiful rug, which is therapeutic for the soul and grows quickly into a beautiful item for the home. Purchase your pattern, needle and working fabric from the shop and your class is free. If you wish to use fabrics from your stash the class fee will be $35.00. Classroom opens at 9.30am with class beginning at 10am. Please bring lunch - homemade morning tea will be provided.

Dancing Dollies

Friday 4 November, 9 December & 20 January 6.00pm-9.00pm

An evening for lovers of antique Australian quilts. At the moment we are working on versions of Dancing Dollies and Auntie Green's Coverlet and next year we will be starting the Sarah Evans Quilt from Annette Geros' book Fabric of Society. This is a social sewing group that comes together once a month and enjoys a shared meal, whether it be take out/home cooked and settles in for an evening of laughter and friendship as we help one another make these gorgeous antique quilts. If you wish to make any of these amazing antique quilts you will need to hold a copy of Annette's book or attend classes with Sue Ross (for Auntie Green). Cost of the evening is $5.00 plus the shared cost of the meal (which varies).

Auntie Green's Coverlet

Saturday 7or Sunday 8 January 10.00am - 4.00pm

Come and join Sue as she takes us into the past to enjoy the magnificent quilt that is Auntie Green's Coverlet. This wonderful quilt was originally made in London around 1860 and is a wonderful tribute to the sewing skills of the women of that era. It travelled to Australia on a windjammer via the Horn and New Zealand where it finally came to rest Victoria, Australia. Join a group of likeminded and dedicated ladies who under the guidance of Sue Ross are in love with making this antique Australian quilt. Class fee is $80.00 for the day, which includes your pattern and your homemade morning/afternoon tea along with tea and coffee.

Gift of Love

Saturday 14 January 10.00am-1.00pm

We all have wonderful people in our lives so why not join Kyleigh and make them a gift from your heart. Kyleigh's classes are great fun with lots of laughter and beautiful projects being made. Kyleigh will delight you with her personality, knowledge and happy spirit. In January we will be making this gorgeous stitching bag from Natalie Bird, just the sweetest bag to keep your most precious sewing possessions in. The cost of this class is $20.00 along with the purchase of your kit for the project for the class. Don't miss out on a great morning so come and join Kyleigh and her lovely ladies and make a beautiful gift of love. A homemade morning tea will be provided along with tea and coffee.

Cold Wind

Friday 6 December & 13 January 6.00pm-9.00pm

This group would definitely come under the heading of slow burners as we (including me – the worst offender) have been working on this quilt for the last few years. This lovely group of ladies meets once a month enjoying the time not only to stitch (even one qualifies) but also to enjoy a shared meal, a little shopping and each other's company. The girls are working on Love Letters from Cold Wind by Blackbird Designs. The quilt is a 9-block applique quilt with a finished size of 86" square – so lovely big pieces to applique. Some in the group are hand appliqueing while some are machine appliqueing their quilts, either way you will end up with a stunning quilt to enjoy for many years to come. If you are looking to start an applique quilt and would love to join a group of friendly, easy natured ladies then this just might be the group for you. Cost of the evening is $5.00 plus the shared cost of the meal (which varies). Tea/coffee is provided. Block shown is my latest finished block.
