Quilting on the Downs

Precious Time is thrilled to announce our inaugural quilt gathering to be held from 19 – 24 September 2010.

We have assembled a fantastic array of tutors who will be presenting some wonderful classes to inspire your creative heart.

Kellie Wulfsohn (Don't Look Now Designs), Chris Jurd (Patchwork FUNdamentals), Sue Ross (Patchways), Kathy Doughty (Material Obsessions), Christine Cohrs (Once upon a Quilt), Bev McClune (Machine Quilter) and Robyn Ginn (Hand Applique Designs) will all be joining us for this exciting week of creative inspiration.

Chris Jurd's Mariners Madness

We have found an amazing venue for the week and we will be offering a variety of 1 and two day classes, with hopefully something to entice everyone. Classes will be small & intimate to ensure quality time with your tutors. Morning tea, lunch, afternoon tea and coffee on arrival is all included in the fees.

We look forward to you joining us for a wonderful week of stitching as we celebrate the joy of friendship, laughter, & inspiration with kindred stitching sisters.

Carnival Week in Toowoomba

We have chosen to coincide Quilting on the Downs with Toowoomba's annual Carnival of Flowers Festival.

There are many lovely things to do during this week. Some of the highlights that we thought would be of interest include the Floral Parade on Saturday 18 September, open gardens, Toowoomba Quilters Fine Arts Exhibition. Margie Creek, a Toowoomba quilter is having an exhibition of historical family quilts.

The weather is beautiful at this time of year and with so much on offer it is a wonderful time to visit our fair city

Don't Look Now! — please tell me how to stop looking and loving

Robyn Ginn

Robyn is an award winning quilt maker. Her unique designs have been popular with quilters and at exhibitions throughout Australia for many years.

This workshop is both exciting and rewarding. It teaches Robyn's method of appliqué and produces the freedom that comes with pre-tacking each appliqué piece. Each student begins with a floral fabric that she loves. From this Robyn will design a simple flower, large or small, that will be repeated throughout the quilt. The resulting quilt will vary in size to suit each student. Appliqués will then be embellished with embroidery. Robyn has many lovely stitches and ideas to share. Each quilt will be a unique reflection of the maker.

Class: Wed 22 & Thurs 23
Sept (2 day class)

Cost: $180

Chris Jurd

Chris is a patchworker and teacher from the Blue Mountains in NSW. She has an extensive portfolio of patterns, and we have chosen our two favorites for you. Both quilts use foundation techniques to get that fabulous precision needed. Chris will expertly guide you with colour placement & fabric choices to make either of these spectacular quilts.
